JOHN MORTON,
Has juſt received per the Hopewell, Capt. SMITH, from LONDON.

A Neat and general Aſſortment of Goods ſuitable for the Seaſon, which will be Sold on the very loweſt Terms, at his Store in Queen-Street, near the Fly-Market. 53 56

TOULON, Auguſt 10.

THE La Fleche Man of War, ſtationed as a Cruizer on the Coaſt of Corſica, has juſt brought in fifty-one Corſicans, who continued in Arms, among whom is one of their Chiefs, named Beneditto. Scarce a Packet-Boat arrives without bringing ſome of them, who are committed to the Great Tower, from whence they are ſent to the Iſle of Rhe, in order to their being tranſported to our American Iſlands. It is certain, if we go on at the ſame Rate as for ſome Time paſt, that Corſica, in a few Years, muſt be entirely drained of its Natives. No greater Regard is paid to the Clergy than the Laity, many of the former having been brought hither, who are diſtributed in different Provinces in this Kingdom, to break their national Spirit.

Warſaw Auguſt 15. By the laſt courier from Count Panin, we have advice, that General opened the trenches before Bender the 21ſt ult. and that he began to batter the town. The commanding Seraſkier has burat down the beautiful ſuburbs, and ſeems as if he would hold it out to the laſt extremity.

Auguſt 18. General Weymarn and Major Wilde have received a particular account of the victory of the 1ſt inſtant, at the concluſion of which General Romanzow mentions, that a body of his troops had approached the Danube, oppoſite Iſaccia, and obliged a great party of Turks to ſurrender themſelves priſoners, by cutting off their retreat. It is ſaid, that the Ruſſians have got poſſeſſion of the Grand Vizir's military cheſt. General Baur is advanced as far as the Danube, he has taken thirty more pieces of cannon from the Turks, and ſunk many veſſels belonging to the enemy, which occaſioned great numbers of the Turks to return and ſurrender themſelves priſoners; the number of whom increaſes ſo much, that more troops muſt be ſent to guard them. There are already 11,000 men priſoners, and the dead are reckoned at about 7000 more.

Trieſte Auguſt 13. The Ruſſian and Turkiſh ſquadrons after the two combats which they fought, the one near Napoli Romania, and the other in the ſeas of Andros and Tenedos, retired in order to repair their damages, the firſt to idre or Andros, and the latter to Samos. We have ſince learned, by ſeveral letters, that the Turks returned to Napoli di Romania, were the Ruſſian ſquadron had followed them, and debarked their troops near Muchli, and erected ſome batteries, the fire from which ſunk two Ottoman veſſels; that the other Turkiſh ſhips had been all deſtroyed, except two galliots: that the Ruſſians had taken two ſhips laden with ammunition from Conſtantinople; that the batteries continued to fire on the place, and had deſtroyed the walls of fort Palameda, and it was believed the town would ſoon ſurrender.

Lemberg, Aug. 17. The letters which we have received from the camp of Count Romanzoff ſince the laſt victory, on the firſt inſtant, adviſe, that Lieut. General Prince de Repnin hath taken poſſeſſion of Iſmailou, and General de Bawr of Ibrahilou, towns ſituated on the Danube: theſe conqueſts, as they cover Wallachia and Moldavia, render the Ruſſians maſters of the Danube, in ſuch a manner that the Turks will not eaſily paſs it. We expect with impatience a confirmation of theſe important advices.

Lemberg Aug. 19. We have this moment received the important news, that the Chan of the Tartars, who is ſtill at the head of 60,000 men, finding himſelf ſo blocked up, and cloſely preſſed by the Ruſſians, hath written to General Count de Romanzoff, with an offer that he will no longer bear arms againſt the Ruſſians during the preſent war, if he will permit him to retire freely with all his men men; the Ruſſian General replied, he could not grant his demand except on condition, that he will render homage to her Majeſty the Empreſs of all the Ruſſias.

From the Frontiers of Poland, Auguſt 21.

Among the booty, which the Ruſſians took from the Grand Vizir on the 1ſt of Auguſt, beſides effects to the amount of 20,000 roubles, they found two coffers filled with ſmall aigrettes of feathers, which the Grand Vizir intended to have diſtributed among the moſt valiant of his people after the victory; theſe the Ruſſian Officers now do themſelves the honour to wear.

Otranto, Aug. 20. Letters from Zante confirm the Account of the Deſtruction of the Turkiſh Fleet. Admiral Elphinſtone, who is cruiſing near the Streighis of the Dardaneſſes, has taken 14 Ships, laden with Proviſions, &c. for Conſtantinople, which has thrown the Inhabitants of that Place into the greateſt Conſternation. The Ruſſians have laid ſeveral Illands under Contribution, and are battering Napoli di Romania in Breach; and it is generally thought throughout the Levant, that the Ruſſians will attempt to paſs the Dardanelles, and ſet Fire to Conſtantinople.

Leghorn, Aug. 28. A Letter from Tunis adviſes, that 900 French Grenadiers, Part of the Armament ſent againſt that Place, had been ſurpriſed by the Tuniſians near Biſerte, and had been all put to the Sword.

Hague, Sept. 2. By letters from Paris, we learn, that a general commotion is apprehended, unleſs the King revokes his letters patent of the 27th of June, by which the trial of the Duc d'Aiguillon was ſuſpended: all the parliaments having already declared againſt the conſequences of the ſaid letters, which they highly proteſt are injurious to the conſtitution, and tend to impede the regular courſe of juſtice. They add, that the Duke is conſidered as poltroon, and the opinion of his guilt is confirmed by his meanly ſheltering himſelf under the ſanction of theſe letters. It is remarkable, that the independent people call him Volpone or Fox, of France; in alluſion to a certain great man in England, who was ſcreened from public vengeance by ſimilar methods.

LONDON, Auguſt 8.

It is a cant phraſe at Court, when any thing is put under the cuſhion, and not deſigned to be taken any notice of, that "ſuch a thing is in Hell," According to that rule, from the inattention that has been ſhown to the late Petitions, a great many of them are there at preſent.

Letters from Peterſbourgh, dated Aug. 13, adviſe, that the Empreſs hath received a confirmation of the two late important victories gained by the army of General Romanzoff over the Turks, viz. on the 18th of July and on the firſt of Auguſt; on which account Te Deum has been ſung.

The above letters add, that her Majeſty, to reward the ſervices of Gen. Romanzoff, hath raiſed him to the dignity of Field Marſhal of her armies.

They write from Hamburgh that the Politicians there are of opinion that the Empreſs of Ruſſia will ſpeedily call upon Gr—t B——n to fulfill her engagements purſuant to treaty, by furniſhing the ſtipulated number of 15 men of war of the line to aſſiſt the Ruſſians in carrying on the war againſt the Porte.

Some letters from New-York mention, that it is whiſpered there, the importation party would ſoon be obliged to abandon the American continent, and at preſent remain under great apprehenſions from the reſentment of their injured Countrymen.

It is ſaid that Lord Chatham waited on his Majeſty this day at Richmond, and had the honour of a long conference with him

It is ſaid to be now under conſideration to block up all the ports belonging to the colony of Maſſachuſetts-Bay, and not to ſuffer the inhabitants to fiſh upon the banks, or any part of the American coaſt, for one year, and to cauſe all the ports of the other colonies to be ſhut againſt them; at the ſame time to allow the privileges, deny'd to them, to New-York, and all the other colonies that ſhall imitate its late example.

Sept. 1. By a variety of orders lately received from New-York, it appears, that the ſtate of manufactures in that province had never been carried to the extent which letters from thence repeatedly pretended.

An account from Copenhagen in this day's Flanders mail, confirms one received ſome time ago, of the death of Jacob Drakenberg, (a Norman) at Aarhuus, in the 146th year of his age: and adds, that ſome days before his death he was able to walk out to viſit his acquaintance.

A Morning Paper ſays, there is now living at the Hon. and Rev. Mr. Beauclerk's in Somerſet-houſe, a domeſtic ſervant, 113 years of age, has the uſe of all his ſenſes, and does all the duties of his place with great alertneſs and exactneſs.

Sept. 4. If a war ſhould be the immediate conſequence of the preſent diſturbed ſtates of affairs in Europe, the now premier of a naval board is to be removed from his land employment, to an actual command at ſea.

The reaſon of there being no Engliſh Ambaſſador at this time at the Court of France, is ſaid to be that a point remains unſettled with reſpect to the rank of the perſon who is propoſed to be ſent hither from thence in a ſimilar capacity.

The affairs reſpecting a nobleman in France, who is under popular diſpleaſure, ſeems every day to wear a worſe aſpect; and, it is believed, that all the King's intereſt will not be able to ſave him from the diſgrace which the exaſperated nobles of that kingdom thinks he merits.

The two Counſelors of the Parliament of Rennes, who were arreſted a few days ſince at Compiegne, and committed to cloſe confinement in the caſtle of Vincennes, are both gentlemen of diſtinguiſhed Families, and one of them in particular is of the houſe of Matignon.

The laſt letters from India confirm the preſent proſpect of peace and ſecurity in the countries where the Engliſh Company has any concern. Somero and Sujah Dowla, diſcouraged by the peremptory refuſal of Heider Ally to join with them, and his declaration of a full intention to ſupport the Engliſh, have wholly laid aſide the deſign they were meditating againſt the Company.

In the plan that has been ſubmitted to conſideration for the rebuilding the ſtore houſes, which were unfortunately burnt down at Portſmouth, every one of the new erections that are propoſed to contain ſtores of a combuſtible nature, are to be at twenty feet diſtance from each other.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman at Liſbon, to his Friend in London.

"Mr. Dennis Connell, a Britiſh merchant, has been impriſoned here lately in an ignominious manner, and by an incompetent judge, not only in defiance of our rights, but contrary to all law and equity; a circumſtance which has generally alarmed every Britiſh ſubject in this place, and been the ſubject of many conſultations, Mr. Connel has behaved with becoming dignity through the whole affair. Redreſs has been demanded, but no ſatisfaction hitherto obtained, though fifteen days have elapſed ſince his impriſonment. If the judge, who is one of the loweſt claſs, is not ſeverely chaſtiſed, it is hoped the inſult will be properly reſented by the Engliſh government. This affair I doubt not, will make a great noiſe in England. You will be acquainted with the iſſue."

Letters from Venice mention, that the Republic now finds itſelf in a very tickliſh ſituation with reſpect to Ruſſia, with which the moſt clear-ſighted politicians now think it next to impoſſible to avoid a rupture, for ſix months longer.

We are credibly informed, that 90 ſail of Dutch Merchantmen are on the point of ſailing for the French iſlands, in the Weſt-Indies, under convoy of four of their men of war.

Private letters from Conſtantinople ſay, that the plague makes terrible havock in Aſia; but has not yet ſpread to Conſtantinople: yet it is aſſerted, that an epidemical diſtemper is very riſe in that capital, and carries off great numbers.

Sept. 5. A Gentleman lately arrived from France ſays, the French Navy conſiſts at preſent of 78 ships of the line, mounting from 116 to 50 guns, beſides ſeveral others on the ſtocks at Rochfort, &c. 31 frigates from 40 to 16 guns, and 11 chebecks from 20 to 12 guns.

An Engliſh Gentleman at Conſtantinople writes, that the city is in horrible commotions, on account of the ſignal victories obtained by the Ruſſians by ſea and land; that all foreigners are threatened indiſcriminately; and that it was apprehended ſome fatal events would ſpeedily enſue.

Sept. 12. The laſt letters from Ireland make no mention of the reſignation of Colonel Lutterel; whence it is apprehended the event has not taken place.

The profit of Colonel Lutterel's late appointment conſiſts but in his pay, which we now find is only a guinea per day.

Sept. 13 The ſum of 80,000l. was remitted, a few days ago, from one houſe in the City, to Amſterdam, being only half a year's intereſt of money which the Dutch have in our public Funds.

DUBLIN, September 15.

Extract of a Letter from London.

"It was confidently ſaid this morning, that the King of Pruſſia has marched 20,000 of his beſt troops to the frontiers of Hungary: And that ſome extraordinary news has been lately received from he lords of the regency of Hanover——The chiefs of minority are preparing to open their budget next ſeſſions, by a public diſplay of ſecrets, which it is confidently affirmed, will aſtoniſh and diſmay their antagoniſts——The D. of C. is now retailed on the ſtalls in Bartholomew Fair, in gilt gingerbread, properly decorated with a Bible oath.

PHILADELPHIA, November 8.

Nov. 12. Capt. Lexley, from London, but laſt from Falmouth, which he left on the 30th of Sept. informs us, that Advice, it was ſaid, had been received by the Britiſh Miniſtr of a very formidable Fleet of French and Spaniſh Men of War having entered the Mediterranean, with Deſign, it was apprehended, to interrupt the rapid Progreſs of the Ruſſian Arms in the Levant; in conſequence of this and other alarming Intelligence, Orders were iſſued out for equipping, at Chatham and Portſmouth with all poſſible Expedition, 32 Ships of the Line, and ſeveral ſmaller Men of War, the principal Part of which were to be ſent into the Mediterranean as a Fleet of Obſervation, and a ſtrong Squadron was deſtined for N. America—that he was told there was a very hot Preſs in and about London, &c. to man the Ships of War, 17000 Seamen, who are now very ſcarce in England, being wanted; and what confirms this, he was boarded in the Downs by a Lieut. of a Man of War, who took from him one of his bed bands, which ſoon forced his putting into Falmouth—that it was currently reported that a War between Britain, France, and Spain would inevitably take Place in a ſhort Time, and all the other Powers of Europe ſeem'd to be preparing for Action, particularly the King of Pruſſia, who has now, ready for the Field, the beſt diſciplined Army in the World, and it was generally believed he would ſoon ſtrike ſome capital Stroke—that it was reported that ſome terrible Commotions had lately ariſen at Conſtantinople which had obliged all the European Ambaſſadors to fly from thence, in Diſguiſe, to preſerve their Lives.

NEW-YORK, November 12.

Capt James Thomas, from the Grenades, the 30th ultimo, in Lat. 33. Long. 72, ſpoke with the Brig William, Capt. Landon from Liverpool for New-Haven, 13 Weeks out and very ſcarce of Water.

Capt. Finglaſs the 26th of October, in Lat 55, Long. 65, ſpoke with the Sloop Sally, Capt. Robert, from New-London for Antigua, who had loſt one Ox, and all his Hoops off his Deck, likewiſe his Hay, but two Bundles, and was then 9 Days out.

The Sloop Catharine, Captain Wood from Auguſtine for this Port, having ſprung a Leak on the Paſſage ſtood for Providence, where ſhe arrived ſafe the Twenty-fourth of Octo.

Sunday Evening Capt. Miller arrived here from London, but laſt from Plymouth in 6 Weeks: Whilſt he lay there Advice was received that the Spaniards had taken Faulkland Iſland, (the Patagonian Country, in the South Seas) from the Engliſh, which occaſioned a hot Preſs at Plymouth, &c. and a large Fleet of Men of War was immediately put into Commiſſion, which gave Cauſe to ſuſpect a ſpeedy Rupture between Great-Britain and Spain.

On Saturday, from Philadelphia, came to Town Capt. William Bedlow lately from Jamaica, which he left the 1ſt October, and reports, that on the 28th Sept. a Veſſel arrived there from Hiſpaniola which brought advice that a Plague was broke out there at Leogane, Port au Prince, and other Places in the Bite. That the Diſorder was not brought from any infected Place, but ſuppoſed to originate there, and to be occaſioned by unwholſome Effluvia from the frequent Irruptions and Earthquakes, with which that Place has been viſited for ſome Months paſt, and have continued almoſt every Day ſince. That ſoon after the People are taken, a Boil riſes under the Arm, and they generally die in 18 Hours. That the General had retired from Port au Prince to the Plat Form, and that the French on the South ſide the Iſland, had poſted Troops to guard the paſſes and prevent Communication with infected Places.

On the above Intelligence. Depoſitions were taken before the County Lieutenant in Jamaica, and Orders given to admit no Veſſel without Examination, or Quarantine. We hear there are Orders for the like Precaution in this Place——Capt. Bedlow's Depoſition having been taken before the Mayor on Sunday laſt; and on Monday, Capt. John Baptiſto Kan, in the Sloop having arrived from in Hiſpaniola was not admitted into the Harbour, but is now performing Quarantine at Bedlow's Iſland, in the Bay before the Town.

Yeſterday the Earl of Halifax Packet Boat, Capt. Boulderſon, ſail'd with the Mail for Falmouth, Mr. Oliver De Lancey, (Son of the late Peter De Lancey Eſq; deceaſed) who lately arrived in this Packet, return'd in her again, with two other Gentlemen, Paſſengers, viz. Captain Bird, (Son of Col. Bird of Virginia) of the 16th Regiment, and Mr. Richards.

On Monday Morning laſt, one Stephen Hanſon, a Mariner, who lodged near the Ship yards, was found dead in his Bed. The Coroner's Inqueſt brought in their Verdict, that he died of an inward Decay.

A London paper of the 20th of September, (by Capt. Miller,) mentions that a Dutch Ship laden with Military Stores for Morocco, having been forced by a Storm into Cadiz, the Cargo was ſeiz'd and the Ship detain'd.——The Parliament of Paris continue to make new and ſpirited Remonſtrances againſt the arbitrary proceedings of the Court, as being contrary to the Letter and Spirit of the French Monarchy, and the Kings Oath, and evincing a premeditated deſign to change the Form of Government.——The Daniſh Squadron had been reinforced with 3 Ships of the Line, 3 large Frigates, and ſeveral Bomb Ketches.—Had renew'd their Attack upon Algiers, made a great Breach, beat down ſome of the Battlements, diſmounted ſeveral Guns, and Terms of Accommodation had been made, but rejected, and the Firing continued when the advice Boat left the Place. The Spaniſh Ambaſſador pretends to have a cauſes of Complaint.—One reſpecting Falconers Iſland, the other for calling his Maſter a Fool. At the York Meeting, Sir George Saville is to have the Thanks of the Freeholders for his conduct in Parliament, when they are to aſſure him of Support.—The Duke of St. Albans, who has been abroad 15 Years, great part of the Time a priſoner, is returned home, and has been viſited by many of the Nobility and Gentry. The French Fleet had bombarded Tunis, and thrown the Place into Conſternation, on which, Terms of accommodation were propoſed, and a Ceſſation of the firings enſued But the Bey finding leſs Damage was done than he expected. declared War againſt France, and the firing was renewed, when the Expreſs came away.

Two Fleets of Obſervation, it is ſaid are to be ſent out immediately, one to the Streights to aſſiſt the Ruſſians if attack'd, and to watch the Motions of the French and Spaniards; the other to the Weſt-Indies; each Fleet to conſiſt of 16 Ships of the Line. The hotteſt Preſs in England for Seamen, that ever was known, from Fiſhing Boats and outward bound Veſſels, the Men are impreſſed, and even Landſmen, and Naval Preparations of every Kind are making with the utmoſt Diligence.——Sept. 18. At Portſmouth 9 more Ships of the Line ordered into Commiſſion, 3 are at Spithead, and from Chatham, 3 of 64 Guns, 1 of 74, and a Sloop of 14 are fitting for Channel Service, 1 of 74, is to remain a Guard Ship; all poſſible Expedition is uſed, and the greateſt Encouragement given to Artificers, who work extra Hours; one of 32, another of 30, are fitting at Sheerneſs——Sept. 20. The Ruſſian Fleet not ſail'd from Dover, a Difference had ariſen between the Ruſſian Commanders and the Engliſh Maſters of Tranſports in their Service, the firſt requiring them to ſail under Ruſſian Colours, which the Engliſh refuſed, inſiſting upon having Engliſh Colours.—The Ruſſian Ambaſſador gone down to ſettle the Diſpute,—not doubted but the Engliſh will be juſtified. The Board of Admiralty daily making Contracts for all Sorts of Naval Stores. 17,000 Seamen to be raiſed immediately.——An Army of 30,000 Men ordered by the Empreſs Queen, to the Frontiers of Hungary,——many think that Earl C. will have no Part in the new Adminiſtration,—Wagers that England, France, Spain, Portugal, and Pruſſia, will be engaged in the War,—for which the Peace-makers may be thanked,—An Alliance ſaid to be on the Carpet between the French and Dutch, &c.

To his Excellency WILLIAM FRANKLIN, Eſq; Captain General Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Colony of New-Jerſey, and Territories thereon depending in America, Chancellor and Vice Admiral of the ſame, &c.

The humble ADDRESS of the Repreſentatives of ſaid Colony, in General Aſſembly convened.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE his Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Repreſentatives of New-Jerſey in General Aſſembly convened, cannot but be ſenſibly affected with what your Excellency has been pleaſed to declare reſpecting the Fate of the Paper Money Bill, ſent Home for his Majeſty's Approbation: The Aſſurances given your Excellency by the Miniſtry, of their Willingneſs to indulge this Colony with a Loan-Office Bill, under certain Reſtrictions, was what induced us to wave every eſſential Conſideration, in the framing of this Bill, becauſe as it was not our Intention to interfere with the Act of Parliament, ſo we carefully avoided every Thing that we apprehended might be conſtrued to militate againſt it, but from the Reaſon given in the Report of the Board of Trade to the King, againſt this Law, communicated by your Excellency, we are diſcouraged at preſent from attempting another Bill, as we cannot ſee how it can be ſo framed as to obviate the Objection, and yet anſwer the Purpoſes of a Currency. We however thank your Excellency for your Readineſs to uſe all the Endeavours in your Power to obtain his Majeſty's Aſſent, if a Bill could be ſo framed, and yet anſwer the good Purpoſes intended: We have under Conſideration, and ſhall pay all due Attention to the ſeveral Matters recommended by your Excellency, and hope for a Continuance of that Harmony and good Underſtanding in tranſacting the Buſineſs of this Seſſion, which we have heretofore experienced to be productive of great Advantage to the Colony. By Order of the Houſe,

POET'S CORNER.

UNFADING BEAUTY.

HE that loves a rosy cheek,
Or a coral lip admires,
Or from star-like eyes doth seek
Fuel to maintain his fires;
As old time makes these decay,
So his flames must waste away.

But a smooth and stedfast mind,
Gentle thoughts, and calm, desires,
Hearts with equal love combin'd,
Kindle never-dying fires:
Where these are not, I despise
Lovely cheeks, or lips, or eyes.

All that the Doctor chooses to say concerning his medical abilities, is, that after several years study at the justly celebrated University of Edinburgh, he has travelled and attended upon the Hospitals and Infirmaries in London, Edinburgh, Dublin, &c. as well as the lectures of the most eminent professors in several parts of Europe. He has resided in Maryland, about twelve months, and in that time he hath happily restored great numbers to their sight and hearing, who had been deemed incurable by other Practitioners.

The anatomy of the human body in general, has always been his favourite study; but the structure and diseases of those important organs, to which nature has assigned the most useful offices of life, the eyes and ears, have for several years particularly engaged his attention: From thence he endeavoured to deduce upon rational principles, methods of cure now confirmed and improved by the nicest observations, in the course of a very extensive practice.

Female Complaints in general, especially those disorders to which that delicate sex are, at a certain period of life liable, he has been very successful in removing.

Cancers, old Sores, and obstinate scorbutic Ulcers, are likewise cured with certainty, and, for the most part, without any painful operation.

Notwithstanding this city is at present supplied with Practitioners in physic and surgery, eminent in their profession, worthy and capable of the weighty, the important charge with which they are entrusted; yet, as it hath been a constant rule with the Doctor never to demand any money from those whose diseases he may judge incurable, but on the contrary, to administer, gratis, such directions as may alleviate the maladies they have the misfortune to labour under: And in consideration of the great success which has attended his practice, his tenderness and moderation, to even the poorest individual, he hopes he stands recommended to some share of the favour of the candid and respectable inhabitants of these parts of British America, who can readily distinguish true merit from pretended knowledge. 42—

HAGUE, August 28.

Prince Gallitzin, Envoy Extraordinary from her Imperial Majesty of Russia, has just received a courier, with a confirmation of the victory which the army, commanded by General Count Romanzoff, gained over the Turks the 1st of this month. This battle is said to have been fought between the villages of Kalbut and Jalput, near the mouth of the Pruth. Count Romanzoff having received advice that the Grand Visir had passed the Danube on the bridge at Isaccia, on the 17th of July, at the head of 150,000 men, with an intent of coming to an engagement in order to anticipate his design, detached Prince Repnin with a body of 14,000 men towards the Danube, with orders to occupy the heights between that river and the brook Cabul. The Turks fell into the snare, and imagining they had only that body of Russians to encounter, advanced boldly to give them battle. In the mean time, Count Romanzoff put his whole army in motion, and traversing the plains took the enemy in rear, while Prince Repnin attacked them in front. This manœuvre gave the Russian army so greatly the advantage, that the Turks, finding themselves between two fires, gave way, and endeavoured to repass the Danube on the same bridge on which they had passed three days before. It is added, that the Grand Visir, fearing to be pursued by the Russians, had sacrificed a part of his army to save the main body, and with that view had caused the bridge at Isaccia to be broken down. This glorious action cost the Russians only 1200 men, among whom were 18 Officers killed and 15 wounded. The loss of the Turks is said to be much greater, and when the courier set out, it was estimated at 3000 killed upon the field of battle, four Pachas, and 6000 men made prisoners; besides 143 pieces of cannon taken, 40 standards and colours, the enemy's whole camp, with all their provisions, ammunition, and 7000 carriages. The Russians are at present masters of the Danube, and have garrisoned the castle which commands the principal bridge over that river.

LONDON,

Aug. 25. By private letters from Bengal, we are positively informed that the natives are all in arms against the English, and that a very considerable army is upon march towards the principal settlement. The French apparently are not concerned, but it is believed by all the company's servants that the war will be general.——The East India Company seem solicitous to keep this news secret.

By the latest accounts from the East-Indies we are informed, that Sommero, the late Emigrant from obscurity, was a great favourite with the famous Angria, whose settlements were destroyed by Admiral Watson, in the year 1757; that he afterwards served as a serjeant of the seapoys in the army commanded by the famous, but unfortunate Gen. Lally, under whom he not only learned all the discipline belonging to an army but further imbibed an aversion to the English on account of some national distinctions made among themselves. These accounts add, that the famous Hyder Alley, who so lately concluded a peace under the walls of Madrass, is not only privy to but likewise an Ally with Sommero, and a director of him in all his schemes.

They write from the Hague, that the demand made on the Dutch by a certain great trading company here has occasioned great altercations and divisions there.

We hear it is now absolutely fixed, that the Earl of Rochford is to succeed Lord Townsend as Lord Lieutenant of Ireland; also (in order to appease the people, who are generally displeased at the late unpopular step of proroguing the Parliament) that the Parliament shall sit the ensuing winter, and the sessions to be opened with a most gracious and conciliating speech from the new Viceroy.

The Flanders Mail, which arrived this day, brought no news of any importance. It confirms the accounts of the Portuguese augmenting their troops on the frontiers, which makes it conjectured that nation is on the eve of striking some unexpected stroke.

We hear from the Hague, that his Prussian Majesty has dispatched a courier with orders for his Envoy to leave the Ottoman Porte without taking leave, and that orders were immediately issued out for raising a number of men, and the recruiting parties were very busy all over Prussia and Brandenburg, and met with great success. From the vast preparations his Prussian Majesty is making, it is imagined, that he intends soon to strike some important blow.

They write from Venice, that the Turks no longer able to carry on their coasting trade in the Archipelago and Levant, have had recourse to means similar to what the French used in the last war with Great Britain, namely, employing neutral bottoms, but even this it seems is likely to fail them, as the Russians intend to make legal prizes of all ships of what nation soever with Turkish property on board.

Letters from Smyrna mention, that fifteen principal officers on board the Turkish fleet, which was lately beat by the Russians, had been hanged up at the yard arm, immediately on coming into port, by express orders of the Grand Signior.

August 27. The conduct of the ministry in respect to America, we hear, is finally adjusted, and will be the first object of the ensuing sessions; but whether lenitive or coercive, has not yet transpired.

It is said that the grand defaulter is now in possession of an actual revenue of near 80,000 l. per ann. all which, except about 2000 l. per ann. issues from the different established funds.

A private letter from Plymouth, dated the 15th instant, says, that sixteen sail of Barbary ships, from 12 to 36 guns well manned, have lately been cruising off Ushant. The reason of this naval armament is not known.

Recruiting parties are every where beating up to complete every regiment on the Irish establishment.

September 1. Lord Chatham has been less afflicted with the gout this summer than for many years past. He is daily visited by persons of the first quality; and a rumour is spread that his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland intends to pay him a visit.

It is now confidently said to be positively resolved on by the M——y, to procure an act next sessions to exempt the colony of New-York from paying any duty on the teas they shall import; which act is to extend to such other colonies, as shall from time to time shew the same dutiful and conciliating spirit with that of New York, in order to convince them, that it is not by bullying and undutifully refusing to submit to the mother-country, that they can hope to obtain redress.

The public may be assured, notwithstanding what has been said to the contrary, that the exportation to New-York is now so effectually opened, that since the 15th inst. when the packet arrived with the report of the committee in favour of that important intelligence, there has been but one shipping day without large entries to that province, some of them of such an extent, that the bill of entry, which contains the register of exports, was twice last week, two pages; a circumstance seldom known at this time of year in the most prosperous period of commerce.

We are assured from Yorkshire, that the woollen manufactures of that county are in a very flourishing condition, particularly at Sheffield, where the merchants actually pay for the cloths in the loom.

Yesterday no less than six ships were taken up in the river on the merchants account, to export British manufactures to New-York.

Lord Holland is dangerously ill at his seat at Kingsgate, in the Isle of Thanet, and his case is judged by his physicians to be very dangerous.

We hear that it has already been notified to some of the New-York Agents, in the interest of the Ministry, with a view to its being communicated to the inhabitants of that city, that peculiar and honourable mention shall be made of them in the Speech at the opening of the Sessions, for their late conduct in renewing their commercial intercourse with Great-Britain.

It is confidently said, that orders are sent to Commodore Proby, to send a sufficient force to Algiers, to demand satisfaction for the insults offered to the British Flag by the Algerine Corsairs, who are very numerous and insolent in the Mediterranean.

At the rising up of the Council at St. James's, it was reported, that war against France would very soon be proclaimed. This seems to account for the naval preparations now carrying on with great forwardness.

We hear that the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland has ordered all the officers of his Majesty's forces upon the Irish establishment, to return immediately to their respective posts in that kingdom.

We are positively assured, that Sir Edward Hawke has strongly urged the necessity of taking into immediate service 20,000 seamen.

The ships of war fitting out at Portsmouth for the Streights and the Mediterranean, will be ready, we hear, for sailing orders the latter end of next week.

It is reported, that the Government has contracted with several ship-builders, for building 10 sloops of war with all expedition; 6 in the River, 2 at Southampton, and 2 at Chatham.

The Mercury man of war at Chatham, and several others at the Nore, are ordered to get ready for sailing round to Spithead with all speed.

A letter received last night from Birmingham, says, that as soon as the resolution of the New-York merchants to import was known at that place, several hundreds of hands, who were out of employment, were engaged.

It is said Sir Francis Bernard has been promised the first vacancy in a very lucrative Sinecure in Ireland, said to be worth £2000 per annum.

Yesterday two more ships were taken up in the river, on account of the merchants, to export British manufactures to New-York.

It is whispered that three Crown Officers, in a Southern American colony, are ordered to be recalled.

A special messenger arrived yesterday at his Excellency's the Spanish Ambassador's, with advices, said to be of a very important nature, from the Court of Madrid.

Some advices lately received inform, that from many concurring circumstances, his Sardanian Majesty is confirmed in opinion, that France and Spain are upon the point of commencing hostilities against him, in violation of a treaty some time since negotiated.

The New Edward, Captain Williams, has completed her lading, and is expected to sail for New-York to-morrow: This is the second ship in the port of London that has been laden with goods for New-York, since the merchants of that province have altered their resolution.

Sept. 4. The report of Mr. T——'s having accepted of a contract is erroneous; the following is said to be the true state of the case: Mr. T's father having contracted for a term of years to furnish the clothing for the soldiery in America, in the agreement bound his heirs, five of which term are unexpired; therefore Mr. T. is fixed on to fulfil the agreement as his father's heir.

We hear that Mr. T. has offered 1000 guineas to be off the above engagement.

By a private letter from Virginia we learn, that many of the planters there, observing the great demand for corn from the neighbouring provinces, and the vast return made in that article, have this year broke up several of their tobacco plantations, and converted them into corn fields. It is added, that the crop upon the ground seems to promise success, and it is expected that the example will be generally followed. This, it is said, is owing in a great measure to Lord Bottetourt's management, who, by way of experiment, had introduced into that colony the culture of the new husbandry, and for that purpose had imported drills and other new invented instruments, with which the cultivation of the soil will be much improved.

Extract of a letter dated June 19, 1770. from a young English Officer (brought up in the British navy under Captain John Montague) now serving in the Russian fleet.

"We were lying off Matapan Bay in the Morea, when we were informed, that the whole Turkish fleet was at Napoli di Romana, six or seven leagues from us. Our Admiral, who is a brave Russian, immediately resolved to attack them, without waiting for our other divisions coming up, in order, it is supposed, to obtain the entire glory of the action; accordingly we went down to them with only three ships of the line, two frigates, and four transports. It was on a Sunday morning that we discovered the enemy's fleet, consisting in all of 22 ships, eleven of which were of the line: the Admiral now ordered me (as I can speak the Russian language) to leave the frigate I was in, and go on board one of the line, in the room of a Lieutenant who was dead, and immediately after, orders were given for a general engagement; ours was the first ship that was engaged, but how was I surprised at seeing my Russian Captain and most of his officers as soon as the Turkish fire became troublesome, meanly quit their posts, and fly down to their cabins; so that there was none but myself left to command; in which authority I was further confirmed, by the Captain's sending me up his own sword. We were now obliged to put the best face on our dangerous situation! I had a brave English pilot who seconded me, and after passing through most of their fire, within pistol shot of the Turkish Admiral in Chief, who carried 80 guns, whilst we had but 64. Although I had received a broadside from him in going down, yet I did not return it until I came close up with him; I now called all hands aft, and told them, that we had nothing but the most cruel usage to expect if taken, that we were all *brothers and Christians, and therefore for the honour of her Imperial Majesty and our own, we should resolve to die, or conquer, with the †cross in our hands. This speech had the desired effect; they gave me three cheers, and immediately I ordered a broad-side to be poured into the enemy which made him reel; after which our fire was so regular and hot, that he soon determined to leave us; which he did by the help of another ship, which now ran between us, but had I been properly seconded by our Commodore, who kept firing at too great a distance I think we should have taken her. The Admiral could not come up so soon as he wished, so that for near two hours I was surrounded on all sides, but at last he reached us, and began with throwing shells at the enemy, which determined them (thinking us, I believe, stronger than we were) to run into port, and leave us masters of the day. Thank God I have not received one wound, although as I was shewing the men how to level a gun, a chain-shot swept four of them away: I turned at one of their groans, and then another ball came and took off the clerk's right arm, as he was minuting down particulars, only about three yards from me. I had only 15 men killed, and 22 wounded, which is but a few, considering how hard we were pressed. The Admiral has thanked me publicly for my behaviour, and promises to recommend me properly, so that I am in hopes of returning commander of one of her Imperial Majesty's ships. We have now joined the whole of our fleet, which makes a fine shew. I hope, therefore, that the next I write will acquaint with a total defeat of the enemy, and of our joyously returning home."

Extract of a Letter from Portsmouth, Sept. 2.

"We hear that another Russian fleet is arrived in the humber."

Extract of a Letter from Portsmouth, August 31.

"An estimate has been made of the loss sustained by the late fire in the dock-yard, and transmitted to the Admiralty, which amounts to no more than 149,880 l. 3s. 4d, halfpenny.

If the report of the Spaniards having killed many of our wood-cutters in the bay of Honduras, in consequence of some little dispute about an encroachment, be true, and our M——y possessed of a grain of spirit, an event that has been long talked of must undoubtedly ensue.

* Brother being the word always used by the Russians to express a great affection.

† The cross is what every good and brave man among them is proud to die for. Every Russian sailor wears the cross at his breast, suspended by a string from his neck.

They write from Drogheda in Ireland, that thirty bullocks and cows, the property of a perſon in that town, were lately killed by the mob, on pretence of their being deſigned for exportation into England.

It is ſaid that four men, ſuppoſed to be the villains who murdered Mrs. Roſco, and her maid, on College green, Briſtol, about four years ago, were taken up laſt week, one of whom made his eſcape, but the others were carried before Mr. Alderman Dampier, who committed them to Newgate; a purſuit is made from every quarter after the other, ſo that it is imagined he will ſoon be re-taken.

By the laſt letters tranſmitted from our Miniſter at Berlin, it appears, that the King of Pruſſia has ſome plan in agitation, which even his own favourites have not a correct idea of. They are intruſted with the execution of the preparatory ſteps; but the grand execution he reſerves for himſelf.

The States-General have iſſued an edict directing the precautions that are to be taken to prevent the plague from being communicated to the United Provinces.

They write from Paris, that a celebrated Statuary there has juſt made the outlines of a ſtatue of M. de Voltaire, which, it is thought, when finiſhed, will be a very complete repreſentation of that illuſtrious writer. The King of Pruſſia has written a letter to M. d'Alembert to pay on his Majeſty's account any ſum that he thinks proper, in order to contribute to the homage that is juſtly going to be rendered to that ornament of literature, and at the ſame time moſt highly compliments the academy on account of the tribute it is going to pay to M. de Voltaire. M. d'Alembert having communicated his Pruſſian Majeſty's letter upon this occaſion to the Society, they have ordered it to be inſerted in their regiſters.

Extract of a Letter from Leghorn, dated Aug. 20.

" the following is the ſubſtance of letters received from Malta, dated the 29th ult. That two Engliſh ſhips are arrived at Malta, under the command of Capt. Bodie in the Ruſſian ſervice, from the channel of Scio. The Captain declared, that on the 6th of July, the Ruſſians having followed the Turkiſh fleet to the channel of Scio, found them at the bottom of the gulph Liberno, where it being reſolved to attack them, they formed the line. Count Alexis Orloff was in the center, with three pirates; Commodore Greig, Admiral Spiridoff, and Admiral Elphinſton, commanded on each ſide; Count Feder Orloff was with Admiral Spiridoff, who quitting the line attacked the Captain Baſhaw's ſhip of 90 braſs guns, and came ſo near that the Ruſſian mariners and ſoldiers tore the Turkiſh ſtandard from the ſtern, and having thrown a quantity of grenades, &c. into the Baſhaw's ſhip, ſet her on fire; but her maſts and yards grappelling with, and falling on the Ruſſian Admiral's, ſhe alſo took fire and was blown up half an hour afterwards; happily the Admiral, his ſon, Count Fedor Orloff, and 24 officers, got clear of her in time, and ſaved themſelves in the barge. The Turkiſh fleet conſiſted of 15 large ſhips, two large caravelli, five xebecks, and eight half gallies. The Ruſſian fleet was compoſed of nine ſhips of the line two frigates, and two packet boats. The ſaid action happened on the 5th. O. S. On the 6th the Turks erected batteries on ſhore to defend their ſhips, and the Ruſſians prepared four ſhips to burn them. About midnight the fire-ſhips ſailed towards them with four line of battle ſhips to defend them; but a bomb, with artificial fire, falling on a large caravella, ſet her on fire, which communicated to, and burnt all the other ſhips, except Zafir Bey's, of 70 braſs guns, five half galley's, and a number of ſmaller veſſels, which were all taken the next day, the 7th ult. by the Ruſſians. Moſt of the Turks ſaved themſelves on ſhore, but the Ruſſians have recovered and taken about 300 Chriſtian ſlaves, Admiral Elphinſton ſailed directly afterwards with the ſquadron for the iſland of Tenedos, to block up the Dardanelles.

" I am momently expecting ſome frigates from the Ruſſian fleet with diſpatches for the Court, and more exact accounts."

L—d C—m the other day declared to a noble relation, that he had then in his ſtudy what would poſitively undo the preſent Miniſtry; but refuſed, though preſſed, to explain or ſhew what it was he meant.

The report is again revived, that a material change of ſome of the principal Law officers will take place before the expiration of the next ſeſſions of Parliament.

The Miniſter, we find, who in aſſiduouſly endeavouring to obtain a ſet of new aſſociates, keeps vacant as many places of conſequence and profit as he poſſibly can, as an inducement to thoſe whom he has ſaluted to join him.

It cannot be true that the Marquis of Rockingham has liſtened to the propoſals of a junction with the preſent Miniſtry, ſince after the races at York he received moſt of the Nobility in oppoſition at Wentworth houſe; and it is ſaid, concurred with them in the plan of meaſures they had drawn out for next winter's operations.

We are aſſured that Lord Townſhend is to abide in his office during the enſuing winter: and that no change will be made in the government officers in Ireland, till the points which cauſed the prorogation of the parliament there be finally carried through.

Notwithſtanding L—d H—— has been conſulted on the means, and his intereſt employed, both perſonally and otherwiſe, to bring about the deſired coallition, yet the event it ſeems is diſtant as before: and when we conſider the amazing terms that have been offered to obtain it, our wonder increaſes to find that it is not farther advanced.

The preſent reported indiſpoſition of the Kentiſh Accomptant is looked upon, by the thinking part of mankind, to be only a repetition of the old plan, to afford him a fit excuſe for a ſecond viſit to the Continent.

L—d C——n's regard, it is ſaid, for his friend the A——y G——l, has led him to declare, that if the Seals ſhould be offered to Mr. A——y, he would be no impediment to his enjoying them; ſince his L—d—p's health and inclination bent him to a life of leſs trouble and more retirement.

DOMINICA, Auguſt 14.

This day one William Healeh, who formerly failed out of New-York, now in a ſloop belonging to the Grenades, being bound from the Grenades to Tobago, ſprung his main boom, put into St. Vincent, got a new boom, put out again, but the wind and a lee current ſet him to leeward, ſo that he made the iſland of Dominica, and put in there, where he was apprehended and confined, upon ſuſpicion of his having run away with the ſloop and cargo.

PHILADELPHIA, November 1.

By an authentic Copy of a Report of the Lords of Trade and Plantations on the Petition lately exhibited by the honourable Proprietaries of Pennſylvania to his Majeſty in Council, againſt the Colony of Connecticut, for the Intruſions made by the People of that Government on the ſaid Proprietaries Lands on the River Suſquehanna, it appears, that the Agents for the ſaid Colony being called before their Lordſhips, declared, they had no Inſtructions to avow the Proceedings of the Settlers upon the above Lands, as founded on any Authority from that Colony, or to ſet forth on Behalf of the Colony, any Claim to the ſaid Lands.

" The New-York Merchants here, in Conſequence of Orders from thence, by the laſt Packet, are ſhipping large Quantities of all Sorts of our Manufactures; thoſe for Woollen Goods in particular, are ſo extenſive, that there are not enough in the Market, I am well aſſured, to ſupply them. Thus the Ice being now broke, the other Colonies muſt ſoon follow their Example."
